HERITAGE GOLF GROUP ADDS THE COUNTRY CLUB OF THE SOUTH TO PORTFOLIO THROUGH MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

SAN DIEGO, CA. - Heritage Golf Group is pleased to announce that it has added The Country Club of the South in Johns Creek, Georgia to its portfolio of clubs by signing an interim management agreement with the Bank of North Georgia. The Heritage Management team was chosen by the bank after a competitive interview process.

Earlier this year, Heritage Golf Group announced the expansion of its business model by offering golf management and consulting services to owners of high caliber golf properties through its unique "Owner's View" programs.

"We are excited to offer our management expertise to The Country Club of the South," said Andy Crosson, Executive Vice President of Heritage Golf Group. "As an owner and operator of premium quality golf properties, Heritage Golf Group is able to provide significant resources towards improving operating efficiencies and performance. We can offer unique programs that enhance the golf experience for members while concurrently improving a club's operating performance."

The Country Club of the South is a private family Club affording its Members and their families access to some of the finest amenities available. The Jack Nicklaus designed golf course combines unsurpassed natural beauty with one of the most challenging layouts in the area.

Voted one of the "Top 20 Best Courses in Georgia" by Golf Digest, the 7,000 yard championship course played host to the Champions Tour Nationwide Championship from 1991-1994. Lush pines and hardwoods, rolling hills, lakes, streams and granite outcroppings were preserved to provide spectacular natural hazards and scenery. The course was opened in 1987.
