HERITAGE GOLF GROUP NAMES ROB NADER HEAD GOLF PROFESSIONAL AT TPC MICHIGAN

SAN DIEGO, CA. - Heritage Golf Group is pleased to announce the appointment of Rob Nader as head golf professional of TPC Michigan. Established in 1990, TPC Michigan is one of Michigan's top private Clubs and is the only Club in the state to be part of the legendary Tournament Players Club network of courses around the country. TPC Michigan is a member of both the Tournament Players Club Network and the Heritage Collection of properties.

"We are proud to welcome Rob as head golf professional of TPC Michigan," said John Hungerford, Executive Vice President of Heritage Golf Group. "His proven track record and experiences will prove invaluable as we continually strive to bring members and guests of TPC Michigan unrivaled golf and uncompromising service."

TPC Michigan features a stunning Jack Nicklaus signature designed golf course that pays homage to the Scottish links. TPC Michigan became the first golf course in Michigan to receive certification by the National Audubon Society. In addition, the club has been awarded the John J. Audubon Award for environmental stewardship displaying a true commitment to the habitat and wildlife in a major urban area.

Nader has more than 10 years of experience in the golf industry, with positions as senior assistant professional and assistant professional. He was elected to PGA membership in April 2007. Nader's extensive tournament experience includes working six Senior Players Championships on the Champions Tour and four PGA Tour events, including the Heritage at Hilton Head, the FBR Open, what is now the Justin Timberlake Shriners Classic in Las Vegas, and the CA Championship at Doral.
