PORT ROYAL PLANS FOR PREMIER CLUBHOUSE

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, SC.— Port Royal Golf & Racquet Club, part of The Heritage Collection on Hilton Head Island, has begun construction on a new Clubhouse. This week a bulldozer demolished the large Antebellum style Clubhouse and construction on the new Clubhouse is scheduled to begin before the end of the month with an expected completion in summer of 2007.

Port Royal's new Clubhouse will feature over 15,000 sq. ft. of luxurious space including a 6,831 sq. ft veranda, a private area exclusively for members, and a spacious bar and grill for resort guests. Bloodworth Sharp Buster of Oveido, Florida is supervising the design and Frazier Construction, a Hilton Head Island company, is managing the construction on this large project.

"We are sad to see the old building go, but are thrilled with the new design. We are looking forward to the grand opening next summer," said Ray Dznowski, Director of Operations for The Heritage Collection on Hilton Head Island. "Our Members and guests will be treated to a new Clubhouse experience that will be the ideal setting to continue to provide the highest standards of service."

Port Royal Golf & Racquet Club is open during construction and Clubhouse events have been shifted to the Palmetto Hall Plantation Club, one of the other Heritage properties on Hilton Head Island.
